Here we are again huh!
we've been through so much together!
I don't know what I'd do without you!
I love you Norely! Let's have a blast
this summer!
Love always!

Kris

Kristin
you are such a doll!
I hope you have a blast
this summer & have a great time working at the Hilton!
Love you!
Brooke!

Kristen,
I hope you get married.
I love you
best bud.

Kristen!
Have a super fun summer!
Hope to have you in some of my classes next year!
Gpa in the summer.

Kris.
You are super cool + cute stay that way. I hope to see you around Love

Kristen
I SEE THAT YOU HAVEN'T
LOCK OUT OF YOUR HOUSE
YET THIS YEAR AND THAT MAKES ME PROUD OF YOU HAVE A HECK OF A
SUMMER AND I'LL SEE
YOU AT THE POOL
HAPPY TRAILS
J. Whitt

Hey Kristen!
You're such a doll! Have a terrific summer!
See ya around!
Love -
Nick
M.

Kristen you've kinda been stuck up this year, but we'll take care of that for sure and if not I'll be persst. see you at the Top (Ha-Ha). or at the pool or where ever.

To some one who
I never had the chance to get to know you better But believe me I wouldn't mind give me a call if your still not to good for me ok.

Love
Mike Dixon

Love / Mark Hupp

Hey Baby!
Have fun in life,
and don't forget to call me because I will call you. You are a very special person, and I'll always cherish our friendship. Be prepared, because I will be there during the summer.
Kristen,
I'm this maybe life, forget to call me, I will call you. You are a special person, and I'll always ~~love~~ our friendship. Be prepared, because I'm taking you out during the summer.

 Love Always
Sean Hally
 Kristen, I'll give you the address when I get
 it. Call me sometime.
 Have fun this summer. Maybe I'll see you at the Sultana is you out It's

is with me and you think. I know - I consider you good friends - friend - yet we such a good well. I hope don't do stuff. will keep in so bad stuff. thanks for always touch and sweet.
being so
Love ya,
April Adams

P.S. Say "hi" to your mom
for me "k..?"

 Add
 Kristen,
 you are such a Doll!

I love you
like a sis ♥ kris

Krister,
 I have a doll
 and I want you have a fur slippers stay cool
 K.
 Love
 April C.

Kristen
It was fun in Spilt & wildlife
but not too fun
if you know what I mean, well lets go do something this summer cuz your really a good friend!
Love ya,
Shannah
Walstrom

Kristen,

You are so cool and fun to talk to and you are real cute too! I hope I see you.

Jodi

Kristen,

you are so cool and cute. This year has been pretty fun huh! have a great summer in all the somewhere

Kristin,
Your a Sweetie,
I'm Glad I know
you. Have a hell of a Summer, maybe
I'll see you around,
Love Kate

Kristin,
You are a doll.
Have a fun summer,
and hey, come play soccer
with us next year.
Love
Michael

Kristen,
I'm Glad I know
you. Have a hell of a Summer, maybe
I'll see you around,
Love Kate

~~Camaller~~

Kristen,
Sorry I've been such an asshole all year but I want you to know you'll always be

ROY, UTAH
VOLUME 22

This year's Yearbook Staff consisted of fifteen students working in class and after school to meet deadlines so you could have this book you have now in your hands. Everytime you turned around there we were with a camera taking pictures or a notepad interviewing until we had the Yearbook completed. There were a lot of new ideas used in the book that were never used before, for instance, the cover which was drawn by Wynn Farr.

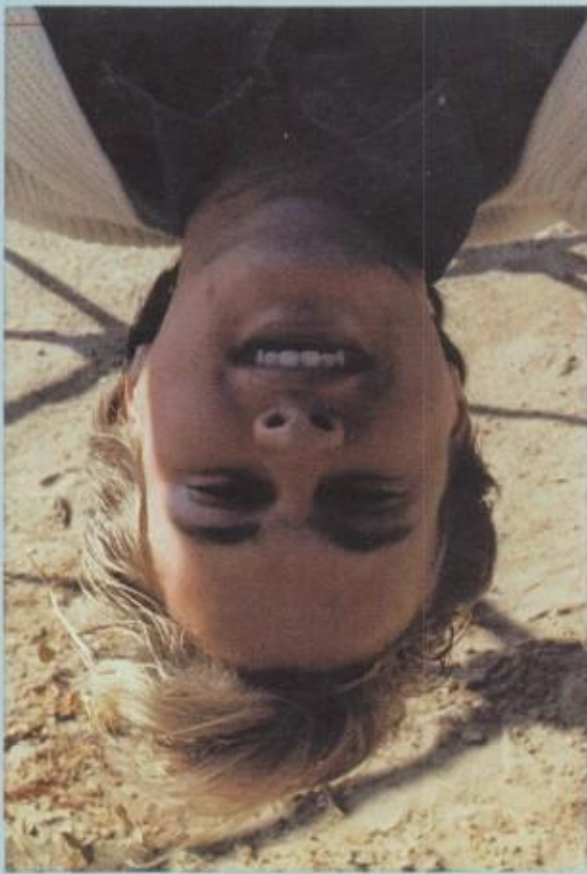

The staff started on the book before the school year even started. They had workshops to learn how the book was going to be presented. The cover took six months to draw so you can tell there has been a lot of work put into the book. The staff had to work to gather as a team or the book wouldn't have been completed on time.

"We really enjoyed working on the book and are proud of its turn out. We are the team, the Family, the Yearbook Staff, so Look Out Future Here We Come." quoted by me, The Editor-Scott Miller.

I worried about starting school this year. Would I make new friends and have an exciting year?

I had questions then that couldn't be answered.

Kristen.
Well it was nice to run into you in the hall
& in Gordie's room.
Have a great summer enter
See ya round!
Love ya

Pointing my life in a new direction I enjoyed dances, dates, games, and made new friends. Roy High has been a new beginning for me.

Candra Cragun

This year's studentbody officers loved their work. The studentbody officers were Darin Grange, president; Kellee Porter, first vice president; Candra Cragun, second vice president; Jodie Karras, secretary, and April Avitt, historian.

The studentbody officers were involved in a lot of extra curricular activities, such as Homecoming. They were also in charge of assemblies and hosting the Utah Association of Student Councils. The studentbody wanted a new approach to some problems and they responded with a new announcement policy and selection of a Senior and Teacher of the week.

They became more effective officers because Mr. Jeffs and Mr. Russell taught them in a Student Government class.

The officers have really enjoyed working with the students in making this year a great success. They feel that this year has been one of the best and most memorable years at Roy High.

The Senior Class Officers of 86-87 were: President – Riko Reese, Vice President – Lori Larsen, Secretary – Brenda Galloway, Senators – Kim Avery, Melinda Hull, Laura Jeffery, Carol Potokar, and John Ulibarri.

They first made their grand entrance at the opening assembly in their fatigues and helmets which was donated by Hill Air Force Base. The officers met every seventh hour so they could put their heads together to plan the activities throughout the year. Their advisors were Miss Olsen, Mr. Hadley, and Mr. Anderson. Some of the activities that they were involved in were graduation activities like the senior movie, the senior dinner, the senior gift, the senior superlatives, and the Senior Cotillion. They also worked with the Studentbody Officers in planning other activities for instance pep assemblies and special assemblies. Without those officers to head the Senior Class we would be out of a lot of exciting activities like we had this past year.

Sen. April Adams

Sen. Stephanie Holbrook

Sen. Tony Karren

Sen. Jason Moon

Sen. Christy Richens

The Junior Class elected themselves a very enthusiastic government this year. With Mark Hupp as President, Chad Gonzales as Vice president, Shannon Murdock as Secretary, and April Adams, Stephanie Holbrook, Tony Karren, Jason Moon, and Christy Richens as Senators, the year promised to be quite fun.

The Junior Officers, who planned the Homecoming dance and Junior Prom felt that more dances and assemblies were needed to bring back that "Old Royal Spirit." As Mark Hupp says, "We're planning this year to be the best and funnest ever and thanks to groups like Spirit Leadership and our enthusiastic students, I'm sure it will be." copy — T. Granducci

INTRODUCING . . . THE SOPHOMORES

Sophomores Heading For The Future

The sophomore class officers were President Kyle Willard, Vice-President Jason Woodbury, Secretary Kim Milligan. The Senators were: Randall Wilde, Ginger McGregor, Alicia White, April McCormick and Cami Steinquist. Susan Hogan served as their advisor.

When asked why they ran for office, they replied that they all felt that it would be a neat experience. It was a way of making new friends and achieving a scholarship for leadership abilities.

These officers have sworn to try and make this year the best and most fun year ever! They did try to make it interesting, so that most sophomores felt a part of things and got more involved with the activities. They did their best to make all feel comfortable and not feel left out of games, dances, and assemblies.

Rose (Alias Angie Salvitti) Yamagucci Goes To Washington D.C.

This year seven lucky students from Roy High plus other students across the United States had the opportunity to go to Washington D.C. Mr. Gladwell went along also, as he does every year, being the advisor. He was the one who got the Close-Up program started here at Roy High. The students from Roy High who went were: Shauna Foulger, Judy Dixon, Nicole Blackley, Angie Salvitti, MarLee Jo Arave, Jeff Bitton. They traveled to the Capital of the U.S., the Washington Monument, the Vietnam Wall, the Lincoln Memorial, the Jefferson Memorial, the Supreme Court, the Library of Congress, and the Archives. ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL
Mr. Gary Reed

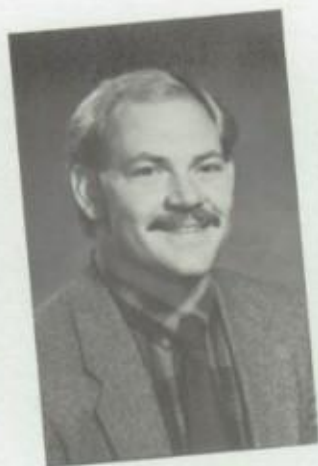

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL
Dr. Gene Jones

The structure of Roy High would not be complete without the four super human people who make up the back bone, Dr. Reese, principal, Jan Parrish, Dr. Jones, and Mr. Reed, Assistant Principals. Some new activities and changes they seemed to be proud of were the many new and different classes, which included Spirit Leadership. They all agreed that the attitude of Roy High has changed considerably. Miss Parrish commented, "The Royals are proud to be 'Back in Black'."

A main goal of the fantastic four has been to get all kids in school, and on time. The next goal was to make Roy High a good place for kids to learn. Each agreed that teaching at Roy High has been an extremely enjoyable experience. copy — T. Granducci

Jan Parish – Principal – Dec. 1, 1986

Jan Parish was made Principal Dec. 1, 1986. A lot of people can remember her from SandRidge when she was Vice-Principal. She has dedicated herself to Roy High for two years as Assistant Principal and knows the dedication has paid off. She once quoted at SandRidge, "Out of all the high schools, Roy High is the best and will always be the best." Congratulations, Miss Parish.

Head Custodian
Durlin Tubbs

This year's head secretary is Mrs. Nora Bingham. She has been head secretary since 1985. Jane Williamson has been Food Service Manager for the past seven years. She supervises eight full-time cooks and three part-time cooks. This year's head custodian has been here for seventeen years. Durlin Tubbs doesn't just clean, he also does major repairs and supervises four other full-time custodians.

When any of the hard working secretaries, cooks and custodians are asked why they work here they said, "Roy High is a top school and we enjoy being around the studentbody and faculty."

These support people have done a professional job and they can be counted on to get their work completed on time. They are the backbone of Roy High. copy — H. Hollister

1986-87

Early last summer, the team started out by lifting weights due to the encouragement of coach, Fred Thompson who declared, "We've had kids this year, who if I didn't open the door to the weight room, they'd probably beat it down." They worked hard this year and the team captains kept the morale high and led the team well.

With an explosive type offense, the Royals had a fundamental run formation and also used a Royal formation. The running game was extremely productive with a fullback and a tailback that complimented each other all season. The Royals hoped that with intermixed passing and running plays, it would be difficult to defend and hard to predict for the opponent. Defensively they ran a 4-3, which is four down linemen and seven men in the secondary. The strategy changed every week.

Overall, Coach Thompson feels that the most important thing in football, is the love a player has for the game. "I think it gives them reason to get beat up in practice and on a Friday night in a tough, physical game." copy — A. Salvitti

This year's Sophomore team was very skilled. Their record so far is 6 and 0. They are undefeated! There are fifty-three players on the team, and each one really contributed energy and a winning effort. The team captains are Aaron Eppley, John Willner, and Travis Wood. The team practices ten hours a week. The highlights have all come from strong defensive players. Coach Stenquist claims that the Sophomore team is really exciting and has not really played any teams this year that they have had trouble beating. He feels that they have out-played their opponents. copy — M. Waite

Coach Blaine Monkers, former coach of Roy Jr. High, has joined up with this year's Junior Varsity Football team. This year's team captains were Brandon McDowell, and Steve Williams. Both the coach and the captains expect the team to do very well this season. The team started practicing on July 17, 1986. Twenty-nine players were on the team and they found themselves practicing fifteen hours a week. Coach Monkers said, "By practicing frequently, the team really improved." Coach Monkers also feels that each player is of great importance, whether they were starter or scrimmage players.

The Juniors pre-season record has been undefeated, 3-0. They remarked, "It's a good all around team because of these main points: defense, the balance of attack on offense, and they're good at specialities." The team had players on it that also played on the Varsity team. Coach Monkers considers Brandon McDowell, and Steve Williams to be outstanding players, and they helped to lift the team spirit and effort at the games.

Bountiful, losing to the Junior Varsity team, was the highlight of the season because "The game was close and there was a lot of emotion," Coach Monkers replied. The coach also expects the players to do well next year as varsity players and he will support them all the way. copy — M. Waite Ted Smith was the coach for this year's Basketball Team and assisting him were coaches Van Hadley and Jay Welk. This Year we had an incredible team. Everyone put forth the effort and all of them worked together as a team. Their captains were Rod Belnap and Craig Miles.

One Friday, they played an incredible game against Clearfield. We were ahead at second quarter, but soon the other team caught up. We were tied at 45-45 and we had about thirty-two seconds to go up for the rest of the game. At third quarter, Clearfield was leading us by six points. Then they began to get ahead, but we were catching up. In the forth quarter they beat us by 77-63. Even though we lost, our team gave Clearfield their money's worth. What I'm trying to say is that when our team was under they still kept trying to win.

The Junior Varsity team had a winning year when each of the thirteen members worked their hardest. Each player was valuable in their own way if they all worked together. The captain was Dane Palmer and the starters switched around every game. One of the hardest competitors this season was Clearfield High School. The games won were highlights which resulted from all the players giving it their all.

This year's sophomore team had seventeen players and was the best team in a long time. There were no appointed captains. The starters included: Chris Theil, Travis Wood, Brad Miles, Jeff Mager, and Kyle Gorder. One of the highlights of the season was when they beat Mountain Crest, but to them winning is also a great achievement. Everyone on the team is a valuable player when they work hard. This has improved and prepared the sophomores for many winning years to come.

New Coach Leads Girls Basketball Team

This year's girls basketball team, fourteen to be exact, have two new coaches, Mr. Staker and Ms. Shultz who are from Sandridge. As a coach, Mr. Staker has not had a losing season yet. Mr. Staker wanted Ms. Shultz assistance in coaching the team.

Almost everybody on the team plays and they seem to have a better attitude. They work hard by practicing every day for two hours. The team is looking for a lot of support in the coming years. Heather Holbrook said, "A lot of enthusiasm from the Junior Highs has helped the team's attitude. We have worked a lot harder than before and everyone on the team are friends."

The Wrestling Team reached new heights this year as they participated in many competitions. They won two dual matches and came very close in two others. They won over Bear River 42-21. This was the first dual victory in four years. In Brighton, they beat Olympus 42-37. Five people placed in a tournament in Idaho and that was the most they have had in three years. This was a highlight of the season. They had other competitions in which they scored more points this year than they've had in previous years. Four to eight wrestlers went to state. There were thirty-four people on the team. There were more freshmen on the team this year than ever before: three from Roy Junior and one from Sandridge. The coaches were: Coach Anderson, Coach Larson, and Coach Smith. The captains were: Mike Workman and John Liu. There were three valuable players: team point leader, Shawn Bell, followed closely by John Liu, Mike Workman, and Max Standard. The team has really improved this year and are looking forward to improvement in years to come.

With sixteen players and two new coaches, the 1986-87 season turned out super! The team practiced every day during the week for two hours. When we asked what was the teams highest and hardest goal the head coach Patti Nancollas replied, "going to state and being state champions."

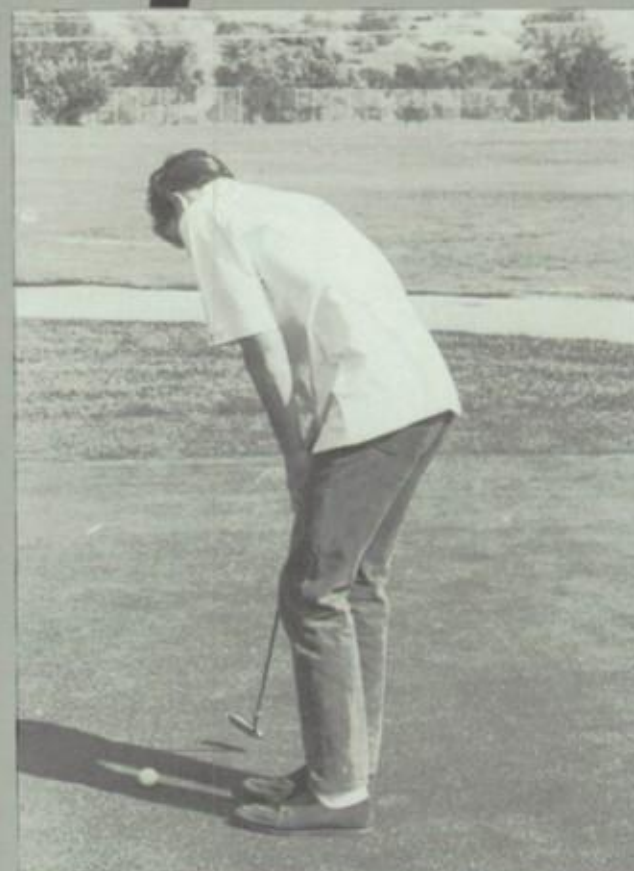

Krissy Phillips, served as captain of varsity and lead her team to victory over last year's state champions (Skyline) by two points. Assistant Coach, Jo Leigh Kerr had a new experience by it being her first year at Roy High coaching. Michelle Stites, a sophomore, also her first year at Roy, served as the J.V. captain.

This year's golf team consists of twelve players. They have competed in many tournaments and matches including: Bonneville Invitational, the Wolfe Creek Invitational Tour, Ogden Golf and Country Club invitational, the State Tour in Glendale, and the Regional Tour held at the Oakridge Country Club. The team had three wins, six losses, and one tie. They placed second at Region and that has been a highlight for them because they had set a goal to place third. This year ninth graders participated on the team and because of this Mr. Molding, the golf instructor, is very excited for next year's team.

The members of the team get chosen at tryouts, beginning on the first day of school. The members practice hard all summer to tryout for the team. During each tournament, eight players compete, and through the course of the season, all twelve players get a chance to participate in the matches. The team practices every night after school at the Riverside Golf Course. Mr. Molding has set a goal with the team to place first at region next year.

Swim Team has reached many goals. With twelve more swimmers to total about seventy kids in all. Coach Thompson quotes, "It's tough getting seventy bodies in a pool and expect them to work well together, but they do." This year they started out as tough as they left off last year. The co-captains for the boys were, Jason Vaughn and Shawn Orem. The captain for the girls was Carolyn Jensen, and Wayne Knavel served as the bouncer, enforcer. They practiced Monday through Friday in order to uphold their championship record. This year they had a new coach, Tom Mckenzie along with Richard Nielson and Coach Thompson.

Most Royals take it for granted that the torch always arrives on time and in perfect condition for Homecoming. What they do not realize is that without our cross-country team there would be no torch.

The Roy High cross-country team, although small, is growing in quality every year. This year, as a special addition, the girls of the cross-country team gained their very own female coach, Ms. Boushis, who has coached at several other schools including Southern Utah State College. With the special attention these athletes received they improved in leaps and bounds. Now, although the coaches love their teams, they would equally love a much bigger team and a lot more support from the Royals. Who knows, but with some of the renewed pride of the Royals perhaps their dreams may soon be coming true.

The girls soccer team consisted of about twenty four girls. It was an equal mix of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. They had an experienced squad and did well in the state competition. Most of the team had played over the years for coach Scott Roberts and are all well known by each other. The girls are not only good athletes but also maintained good grade point averages. They were a credit to the black and gold — athletically and with good sportsmanship.

The boys soccer team worked hard than ever. Mr. Evans and Josh Ortiz started the team in a program called "Soccernastics." The team practiced every night after school, before school two days a week, and ran five miles on Saturday. This past year was the first time they had both a J.V. and Varsity team all season.

Girls and boys track participated more and were more enthusiastic. The coaches were: Mr. Hein, Mrs. Bouwhuis, Lynn Thompson, and Mrs. Kerr. The different members on both teams participated in different areas such as sprints, hurdles, distance, long jump, high jump, pole vault, shot put, discus, javelin, and relays. Every year they had participants who were among the very best in state. Nearly every year participants were offered college scholarships. The whole team looked for the future and gained from it.

Love and Match was the name of the game when it came to Tennis. The girls started off their season in the fall with coach Tonn leading them. In the Spring the boys took up the sport in supporting Tennis. This was coach Tonn's first time coaching the boys. They all improved their back swing and showed that the Royals weren't anyone to mess with.

This year's baseball team tried out the day after basketball season ended. For tryouts the guys have to have a love of the sport and a feeling for wanting to win!! The Sophomores looked sharp but the Seniors wanted a win for their last year here! From being on a sports team the guys learn: discipline, a sense of satisfaction from winning and disappointment from losing, and they get to be part of the national sport, unlike the basketball and football games not many people came out to watch the guys play. The training rules that the guys abided to: they can't participate in smoking, drinking, or doing drugs. The guys set examples for the student body. They showed team spirit and good manners. To meet the academic requirements, they must not receive any "F's" or "U's". The star players were five of the starters from last year and two players that were three-year starters: Scott Jorgenson and Brett Flint.

This year the Royalaires reached many goals. They had a winning team of twenty girls advised by Mrs. Jensen and run by Alesha Porter; President, Chantel LaRogue; Vice President, Cindy Nichols; Secretary, Kristin Haney; Property Manager, and Nicole Stoddard; Junior Representative. Many of the girls agree that competition time is extremely exciting. They competed in two-three competitions, some including Rocky Mountain Region and Region Competitions. The girls must maintain a 3.0 G.P.A., no U's or two N's. When Nicole Stoddard was asked if she enjoyed being a Royalaire she replied, "Heck yah, you get a great sense of team effort, and you get to represent your team and school with your talents, performing and pleasing the studentbody!" Alesha Porter also exclaimed, "Yes, I enjoy it. It's hard work, but very much worth it." Obviously, as we all can tell the all day summer practices and the thirty-five-forty hours in a week school year practices have paid off for these talented young ladies.

Thirteen teammates chose Susan Bradford as head cheerleader to lead them through 1986-87. To help them out Spirit Leadership (formally Pep Club) was reorganized to add more enthusiasm for sporting events. To help pay for competition and summer camps Anderson Lumber sponsored the cheerleaders. They sold hotdogs during the summer at Anderson Lumber in Roy.

Being awarded the spirit stick every night and winning the championship in the cheer division the cheerleaders represented Roy High very well at summer camp.

To help them improve, every morning they would come to school from seven a.m. until first hour and on B-days from seven a.m. through fifth hour. It would take them one day to learn a cheer and three or four days to perfect it.

The Cheerleaders really cared about their job and put a lot of excitement into it. copy — M. Cutler

The Royal Band consisted of fifty-seven to sixty students. The band President was Jason Willard, Vice-President was Jeff Boyson, and Secretary was Michele Richards. Everyone in the band played outstandingly well and they all had good attitudes. The band was about the same size as last year and their goals were to get superior ratings in their competitions and to play to full potential. Some of the competitions were: Region Concert Band, and State Festival in April. They also had many concerts in which they played for many people who were interested in attending.

The Pep Band played at all home games this year. They were directed by Student Director, Corey Totten, and asistant director Tiffany Miley. There were some times when Mr. Flinders did nothing but watched. Thirty to forty students participated in this group. In the early season they practiced three mornings a week but as they improved they found it only necessary to practice one to two mornings a week. Some of the goals were to improve their quality. They also played lots of different music to keep the students from getting bored.

The Next Utah Symphony Generation

This year's Gold Band was double in size. The band proved to be a lot stronger. The President was Taunay Seamons, Vice-President was Jeanie Arnold, and Secretary was Vennesa Zoigmaster. One of the highlights this year came from having a stronger clarinet section. There were also three tuba players, and three French horn players, which have been very rare in the years past. The band has indeed improved its sound as well as its students. Some of the goals for the band were: To take the band to region levels, and to have the band rate higher in scores than any other schools. Some of the competitions the band was judged in included: The Region Concert Band, Concert Band on Region and State levels.

Creating the Sound of Music

Royal Sounds, a select group of young ladies with the potential and abilities of great performances had a chance to become a member of the Royal Choir. This group of ladies performed four times this year and will perform in upcoming concerts at the fall festival. Their code of conduct and performance standards were the same as Royal Choir.

These ladies worked hard all year preparing for concerts. They had three great ladies leading them day after day in their preparations for the concerts. These ladies were: Kristie Richins — President, Kelly Kohli — Vice President, and Nicky Morris — Secretary. Heading above these students as teacher and advisor was Sterling Morris.

The Chamber Choir has done a fantastic job. We would like to thank Matt Kilts and Mr. Morris for helping arrange the choir's performances. The choir has performed at the fall, Christmas, and spring concerts, and throughout the community. Through their enthusiasm they have made music come alive. Chamber Choir is made up of evenly matched men and ladies who sing and dance. Through this experience they learned to read music. They competed in a Chamber Choir competition in the spring. Roy High is proud of their Chamber Choir.

Singing with Chamber Choir

The boys and girls choir performed well through out the year 86-87. They had many performances which dazzled and fascinated the audience. They sang with full force giving it their best at every concert that they've participated in. One of their best performances was at the Christmas concert in which their finale "Hallaluyah" received a standing ovation. Mr. Morris supported them with his enthusiasm and professional taste in conducting them in class and at concerts.

Royal Choir consisted of senior women and a few junior girls. They had concerts and some performed with other schools in a large concert. They were all picked the previous year and had prepared from that time on so they could start off the new school year in an even note. They put all their hard work into their music and it resulted in a marvelous year for them.

Grant Hansen advised the Debate Team. In this class the students learned the act of communication. They prepared for competitions such as The Sweepstakes Competitions where they won the trophies in fourth place and second place.

They had many discussions over Roy High's new Tardy policy and Attendance policy. Scott Hoganson presided as President and Brenda Miller kept records of the NFL points.

Scott had the job of choosing judges for tournaments. These students really worked hard and boy can they give an argument!

The Singers and The Debators

The Yearbook Staff consisted of fourteen students who worked together to turn out the best Yearbook ever. The planning of the book started back in April of 86 and ended in April of 87. The reason why they started so early was because they had Deadlines to meet and had to train the new members that were joining the staff. They had workshops and speakers during the summer which gave them a large prospective of what the book was about. Throughout the year they stayed after school in the wee hour so they could give you the best book ever, so really being on a Yearbook Staff was like having a part time job.

One of the people that worked with the staff was Mr. Farr. He designed the awesome cover and helped with a lot of the graphics throughout the book. The staff would like to thank the people they worked with and thank the Studentbody for all their help that they gave them, so look out future here we come. copy — S. Miller

Round Table, the Royal Newspaper, is quite the up and coming periodical this year with a multi-talented staff and the use of a new computer. This year Royal students will be seeing a new and better Round Table than ever before.

The Round Table has long been a forum for news, student ideas, and opinion and this year is no different. The talented staff members, of which many are returnees from the previous year, plan to continue this tradition with editorials, guest columnists, and special reports. The Round Table is very student orientated with students researching and writing their own articles and their student editor, Rayla Rogers, submitting their finalized works for publication.

"The students really care about this paper," says adviser Bobbe Dabling, "and this has made the Round Table the innovative, up and coming publication that it is." copy — M. Olmstead

The Drama Department has again achieved new heights throughout all of their competitions. The Students participated in many Invationals, including the one at Weber High, Clearfield High, Brighton High, and the State and Region competitions. Their goal was to place on the top ten out of the state. The students participated in these competitions in hope of gaining a better appreciation of the performing arts. They also hoped to build their self-confidence and discipline through the performances. A new activity that the students were able to participate in involved the playing of kids in the drug and alcohol program. These kids performed this play for the Elementary Schools, to inform the children of the seriousness of these things.

A highlight was the musical, "Little Mary Sunshine." Mrs. Armstrong, the head of the department, said that she is pleased with the performance, "The kids worked hard, and this was the strongest chorus I've ever worked with." The actors auditioned for a part in the musical and it helped them to expand their acting abilities, and besides, they all made friends. Mrs. Armstrong said that she hopes to perform future musicals, and that there will still be funding support.

A Royal Homecoming

Roy High set out to make their homecoming week something special. It started on the twenty second of September right after school. Our student body officers set up a hall decoration contest. Many sophomores, juniors, and seniors showed up to give a helping hand. The seniors hall proved to be the best.

On the twenty third of September they held a street painting contest. It took place out on the main street, in front of the school building. The paint job soon turned out to be a paint fight. The seniors and juniors tied for the trophy in this competition.

The most important event of the week was the Homecoming football game. Roy played against Box Elder. It was so crucial to see who would win. Box Elder beat us by one point of 14-13.

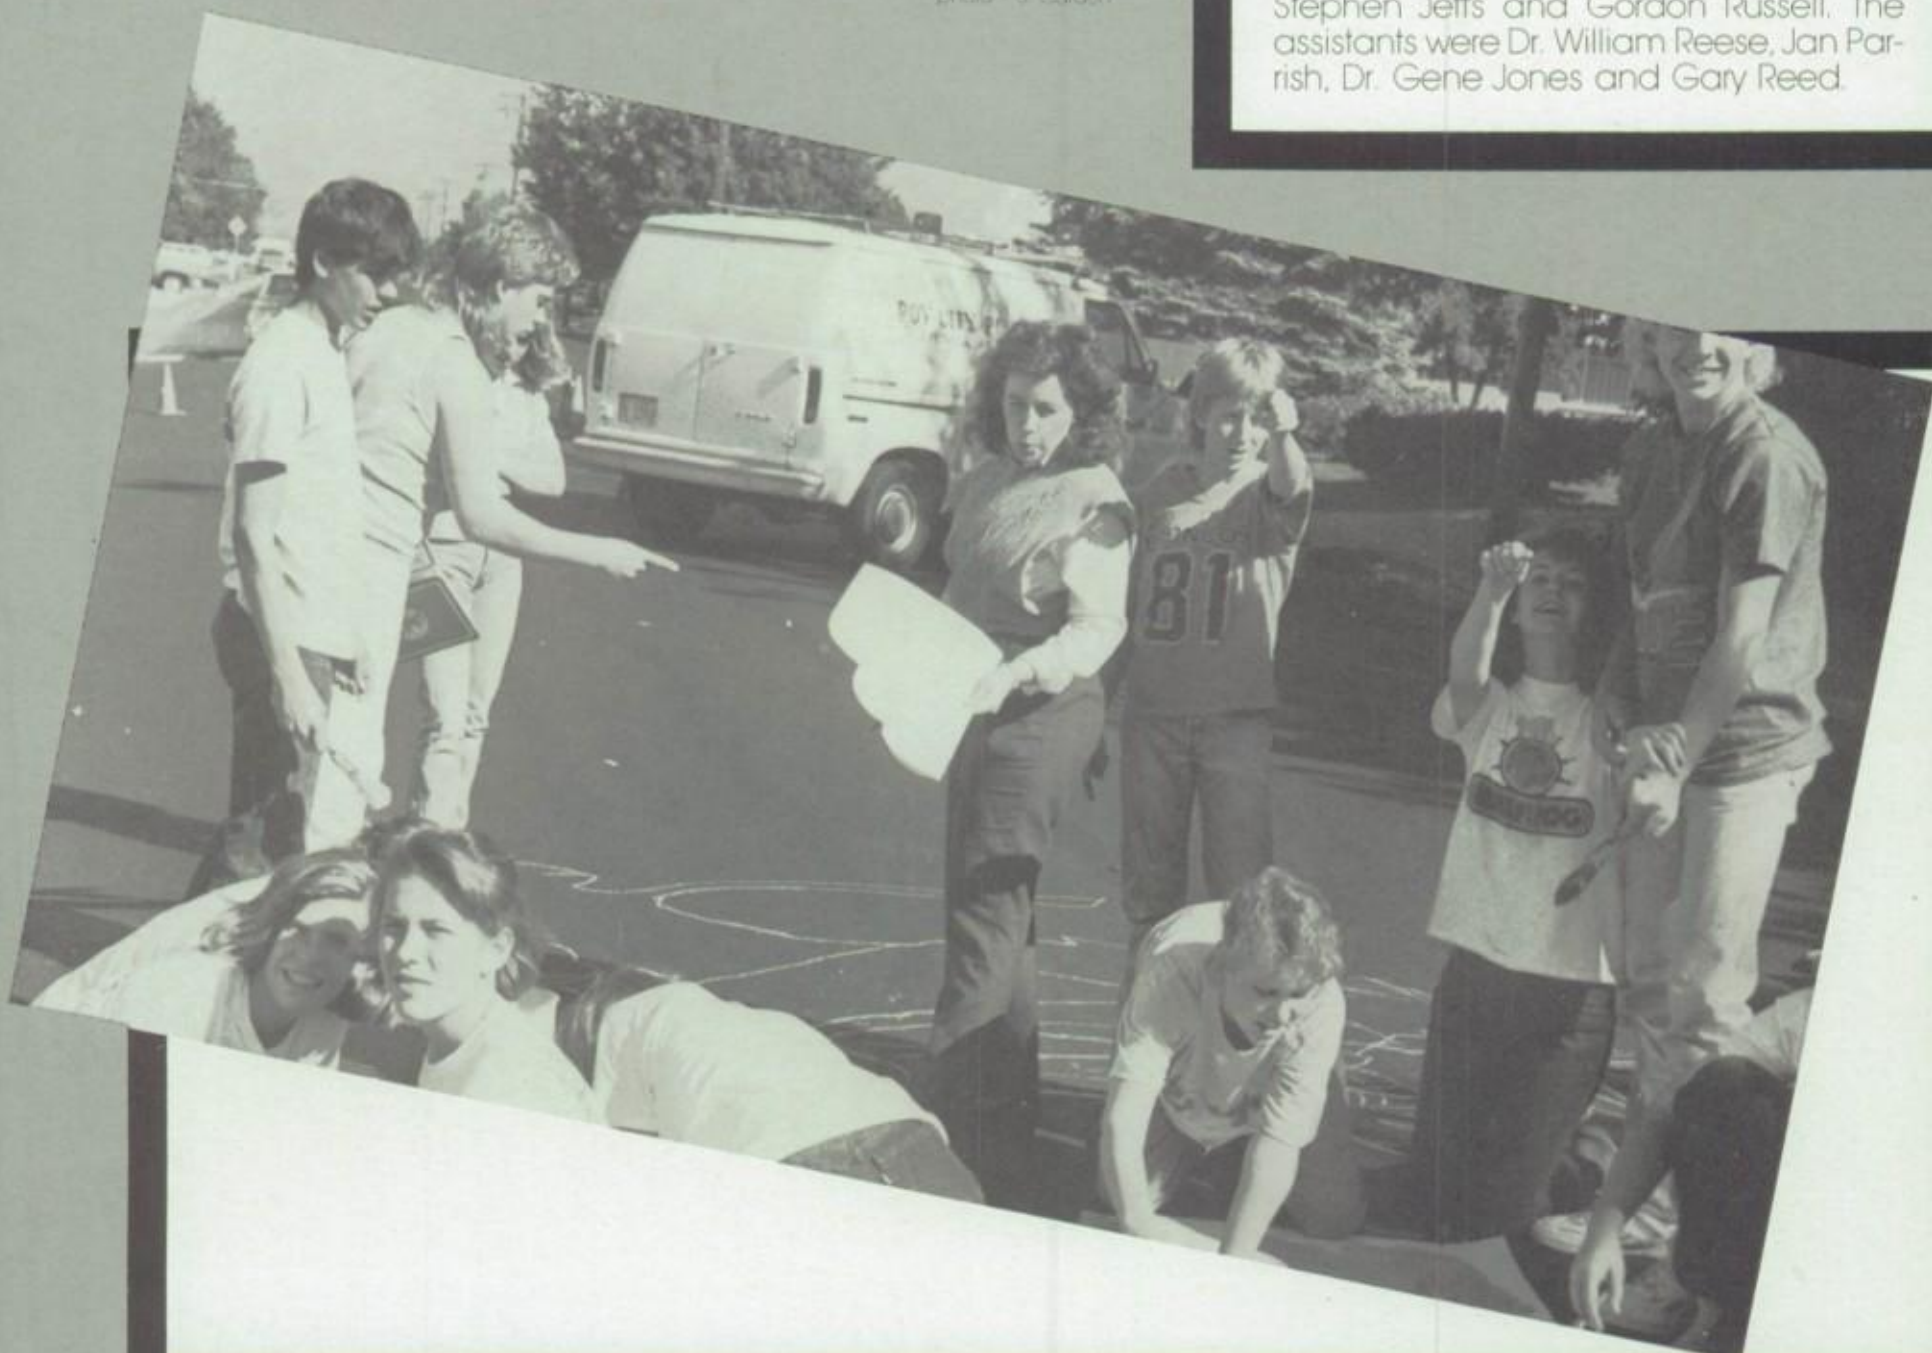

However, nothing to despair, Saturday came and the Homecoming dance started out with students arriving after eating dinner. The theme for this dance was entitled "Friends and Lovers," it began at 8:00 p.m. and ended at 11:00 p.m. A live band entertained the dancers.

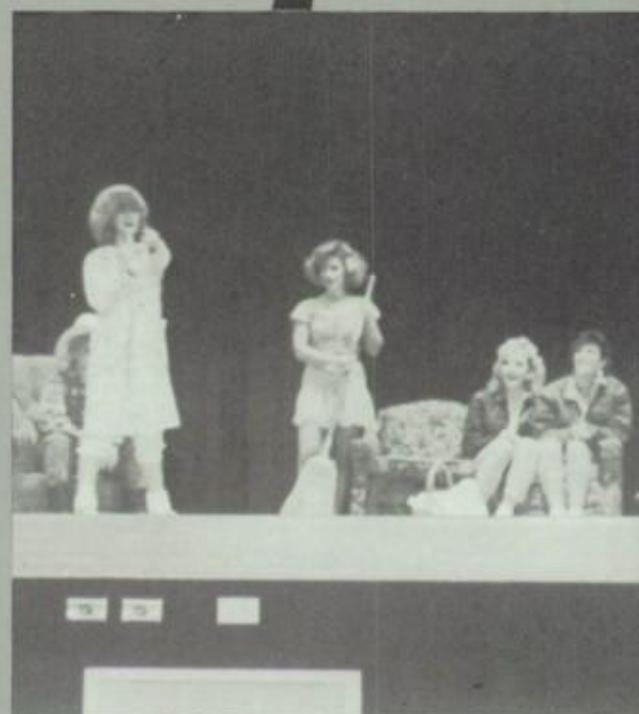

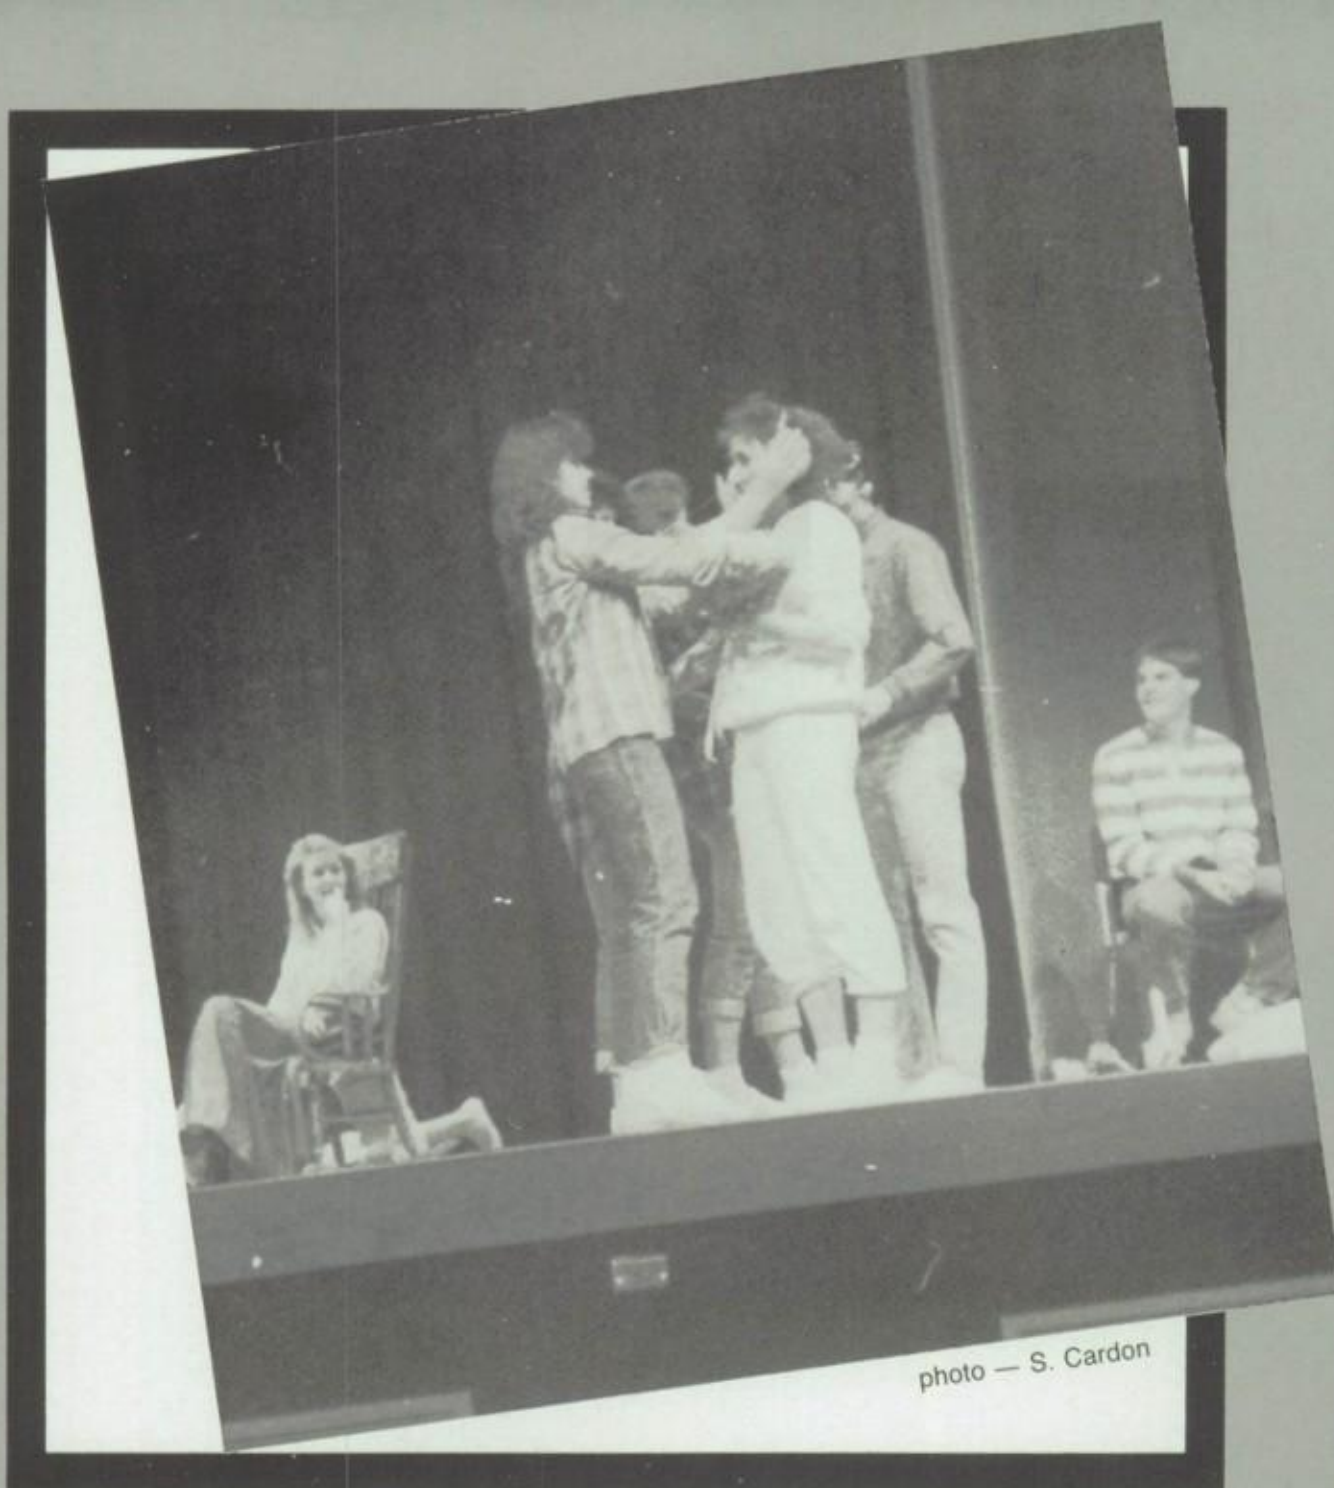

The Chaperones were: LeiLani Grange, Mr. and Mrs. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Cragun, Mr. and Mrs. Karras, and Mr. and Mrs. Avitt. Our advisors that helped were Stephen Jeffs and Gordon Russell. The assistants were Dr. William Reese, Jan Parrish, Dr. Gene Jones and Gary Reed.

Homecoming Queen and Attendants: Cindy Nicoles - 1st attendant, Cami Davis - Queen, Susan Bradford - 2nd Attendant.

The Sadie Hawkins dance, held in the new gym's East balcony began at eight and lasted until eleven that evening, on November 15. This year, the cheerleaders chose "Sadie Hawkins Goes to Powder Mountain," for the theme.

The dance held a fake marriage license booth. Couples had a terrific time participating in this ritual. There were plenty of students at this booth waiting their turns. Others enjoyed dancing to the music that Shawn Noker played. The dance lasted for three hours, during these three hours, many feet were on the groove. Ranae Hull and David Thurgood skied away with the Ski Bunny and Ski Bum title.

The Junior Prom was held at Weber State College in the Skyline room on the twenty first of March. The theme was "Why Can't This Night Go On Forever?" by Journey. The Junior Prom Candidates were: Brook Skinner — Brandon McDowell, Tania Barnes — Doug Brown, Nick Morris — Troy Halliday, April Adams — Tony Karren, Shannon Murdock — Jason Moon, and Dawnell Anderson — Chad Gonzales. The Prom Queen was Dawnell Anderson and the Prom King was Troy Halliday. The girls wore formal pastel dresses with white lacy gloves, while the guys wore black and white tuxes with ties and cummerbuns to match their dates dress. This year's Senior Cotillion, in which one in a couple had to be a senior, was held at the Ogden Hilton on May 16, from eight to eleven. The theme chose for the last tribute to the seniors was "Always" by Atlantic Star. The colors were white and royal blue with decorations provided by the Hilton. The band "Trax" was playing all the latest hits while the parents of the senior class officers chaperoned the seniors' last dance. The candidates were chosen by the senior class officers and the senior class chose the Cotillion's Queen and King.

The Hawaiian Luau was held on April 24 at the the east balcony in the new gym. The studentbody officers sponsored the dance making it girls choice. Shawn Noker did the dance with a variety of music which pleased everyone. The dance lasted from eight o'clock to eleven o'clock p.m. The dress code was Hawaiian style. The Hawaiian dance is one of the funnest dances throughout the year. There you really could let loose and have a blast. All who went enjoyed.

This year's Sweethearts were: Stacy Smith — Queen, Tina Penman — 1st Attendant, and Darlene Fowers — 2nd Attendant. Their purpose was to add recognition to the F.F.A. and compete with others around the state of Utah. To become a Sweetheart they had to: tie a goat, get on a horse and saddle it, throw a bale of hay, bake and decorate a cake, and get interviewed by a panel of judges. One of the competitions that was new was hay bale throwing. The Sweethearts were announced February the twenty sixth. The advisor over all this was Mr. Harris. Some of the competitions were to go to the State Convention with the other girls around Utah and if they won they would get a free trip to Kansas City, Missouri, and compete in National Finals.

Lane Larsen

This year's Valedictorians were Jason Willard and Lane Larsen. These students maintained a 4.0 average from ninth grade on. These were the students that took A.P. classes and participated in extra curricular activities. Jason participated in Leadership activities such as Sophomore President — 84/85, and participated in a Band competition that took him all the way to New York City to play with the McDonald's All American Band to play in the Macees Parade. Lane Larsen to one of the top positions in the Bridge Breaking Competition his Junior and Senior Year. Lane was also a Sterling Scholar in Social Science. Both students received a chance to speak at graduation. They both deserved the title of Valedictorian.

The purpose of the Sterling Scholar Awards was to publicly recognize and encourage the pursuit of excellence in scholarship, leadership, service, and to focus attention on the truly remarkable performance the states best scholars, and to assure its citizens that the highest ideals of excellence and service were sought in an encouragingly high proportion of the students, their parents, and their teachers.

They conducted a competition that involved hundreds of truly outstanding seniors and to present cash and tuition awards; the program sought to commend and encourage excellence among all students.

Categories — English, Speech/Drama, Math, Social Science, Science, Foreign Language, Visual Arts, Industrial Arts, Homemaking, Business Education, Music, and General Scholarship.

The selection of the winners and runners-up was made on the basis of Scholarship, Leadership, Citizenship, and Character as demonstrated through activity and interest in the particular category selected. The Judges rated the scholars on the following scale: Scholarship, 50%, Leadership, 25%, and Citizen, 25%. The Judges added the three scores together to arrive at a composite score.

R.C. Youth Council — Kent Peterson, David Tatton, Jan Moulding, Riko Reese, Shawn Waddoups, Darin Grange, John Ulibarri, Dustin Johnson, Lars Ashby.

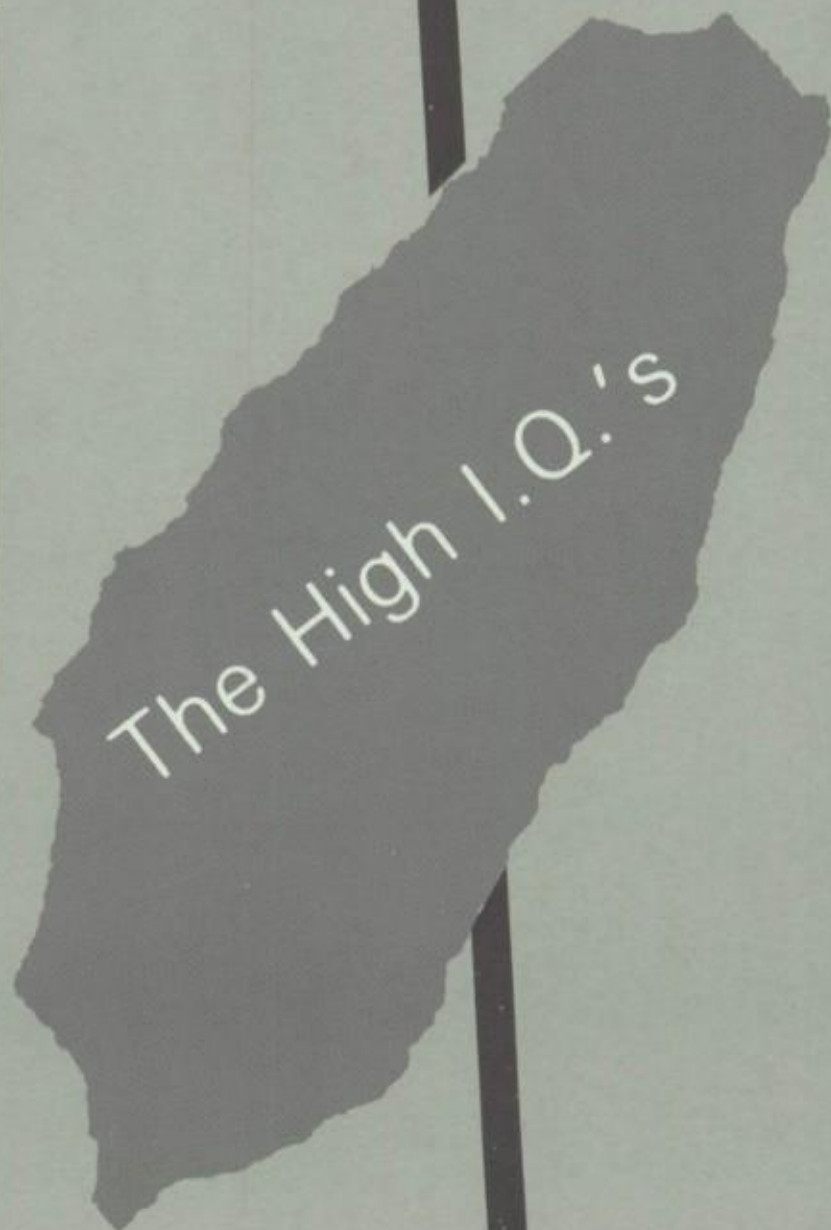

Roy City Youth Council is the legal adjunct to Roy City Council that acts as a liaison between youth of Roy City and City government. This year we allocated $500 to be disbursed to people of their choosing on a national level. The highlights from this year were: to meet and draw up resolutions to give to the city council. The goals were to build more rapport between teenagers and city council. Mayor Riko Reese heads up this wonderful bunch. Followed by the Seniors: John Ulibarri, Luke Romero, Steve Petersen, and Kent Petersen. The only Sophomore was Daniel Baird. The competition at the Salt Palace was for the purpose of a City Mayor Convention for panel discussion, and Utah State for a Leadership Conference. There were six people as a part of this group. The Council got started by the Roy City Mayor legally chartering it. As soon as they write up a bill, they go report to the city council.

A group of special people did their homework and about had a brain explosion. What achievers! The Royals with a grade point average of 3.7 or above became part of the All Around Seniors! This group of seniors have had 3.7 or up on report cards since the ninth grade. Scholarships and jobs of their choice are just waiting for them to reach out and grab them. High honor students represent Roy High at the utmost behavior. There were fifty-nine seniors this year with the grade points high enough to reach this lofty goal. Heading up the group with the highest grade point you can receive, 4.0, were Lane Larsen and Jason Willard. Way to go!

N.H.S. was the National Honor Society. N.H.S. members represent the finest in academic and scholastic success in high school students. These students keep their grades up above a 3.7 grade point average. They attend monthly meetings with guest speakers that report on various topics to enhance the students knowledge of past experiences and current events.

The president of the 175 N.H.S. members was Lars Ashby. Phil Funk, Brenda Miller and Rico Reese acted as officers. The N.H.S. memberships extended throughout the United States and gave students chances for scholarships, so this club was a prestigious club, and only a few Roy High students participated in it.

Honor students attended Boys and Girls state on their own time last summer. There were Sixteen students in all.

The girls and boys were interviewed by the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary. They were asked questions about politics. The girls met at Southern Utah State College. The boys involved the studies of government politics, and an understanding of the nature of becoming a citizen.

The price ranged from a hundred to a hundred twenty five dollars. When asked what they did for fun, Carol Potokar explained, "Well, my city had a Toga Party. We ran around campus with sheets on!"

John Ulibarri told us, "The first night we had a pillow fight, and a kid got knocked out, so the rest of the week we played baseball."

While they did goof off some, this week turned out to be a very excellent learning experience for each student involved. copy — T. Granducci

This year's Air Concert included some repeat performers from last year. The Air Concert was held on February 19, 1987, the purpose was to lip sinc to their favorite songs. The prize winners were Rusty McDonald and Robbie Sweden. Second and Third place winners were James Parks and Kim Jorgensen, Stephanie Holbrook, Krystal McCloy, Melinda Jorgenson, and Michelle Petry.

The concert was held in the little auditorium at Roy High from seven thirty to eight thirty. The advisors were Mr. Jeffs and Mr. Russell. Some of the people afterwards said, "Some of the lip sins were just like real music videos and it was one of the most exciting assemblies of the year."

Miss Langston stood in charge of the table setting contest, held in the library. Mrs. Gross and Mrs. Stallings helped her in preparing the students, showing them how to set the tables.

This contest showed the creativity of the students and allowed them to design the way that they would arrange their dishes and their props.

ZCMI sponsored the contest. It has been held for about ten years. For the last three years, there were fifty more entries than they've normally gotten.

Winners go on to the contest at ZCMI, if they win there, then they go to the Region contest.

The bridge building contest originated at Utah State University up in Logan. Professor Derle Thorpe started out using the bridge construction as an assignment to his students, but many of the high school teachers took interest in his project and began using it. It was a method of showing the students how they were to apply their math skills and imagination, practicing their ability. This also encouraged the students to do well in their math and science classes. Many participated in this project just for the fun of learning how to build a bridge.

Professor Thorpe has been doing this for about five years. He said that he enjoyed his work, weighing the bridges. However, he does not get paid, he says that the payment lies within meeting the students, the teachers, and in seeing the results. The winner of the bridge contest was Adam Richards, his bridge held 1284 pounds. Adam went to the State contest and came in fourth place. copy — Sandy H.

Roy High had the honor of holding many Special Assemblies throughout the year. The Amber Lights excited many minds, The Warren Miller Ski Movie Preview swept many students off their feet. The Christmas Assembly tickled surprised students, who were unprepared for the unexpected. The Sadie Hawkins Assembly challenged a few of the candidates and the Homecoming dazzled the eyes of the audience. Amateurs performed in an Air Concert for the Student Body which amused those who went to watch.

Mrs. Taylor was in her second year in French this past year. French prospered since the year before. She taught two second year classes and three first year classes. In one of her second year classes she taught a third year class. She got the students involved in pen pal writing and taught them the true manner of a Frenchman.

There were two Spanish Teachers this past year. One was Senior Thompson and the other was Senorita Bouwhuis who was new this year. This was Senior Thompson's third year at the school. He taught between second year to sixth year classes. Senorita Bouwhuis taught first year Spanish.

The German Department consisted of two teachers, Mr. Jeffs and Mr. Spencer. During Christmas The German Department made Nut Crackers which were put on display in the halls. Mr. Jeffs also helped students get information so they could go on a European Trip for almost a half of a month in the summer. So all the Foreign Language classes helped students more than just the language itself.

The Communicators
for the Future

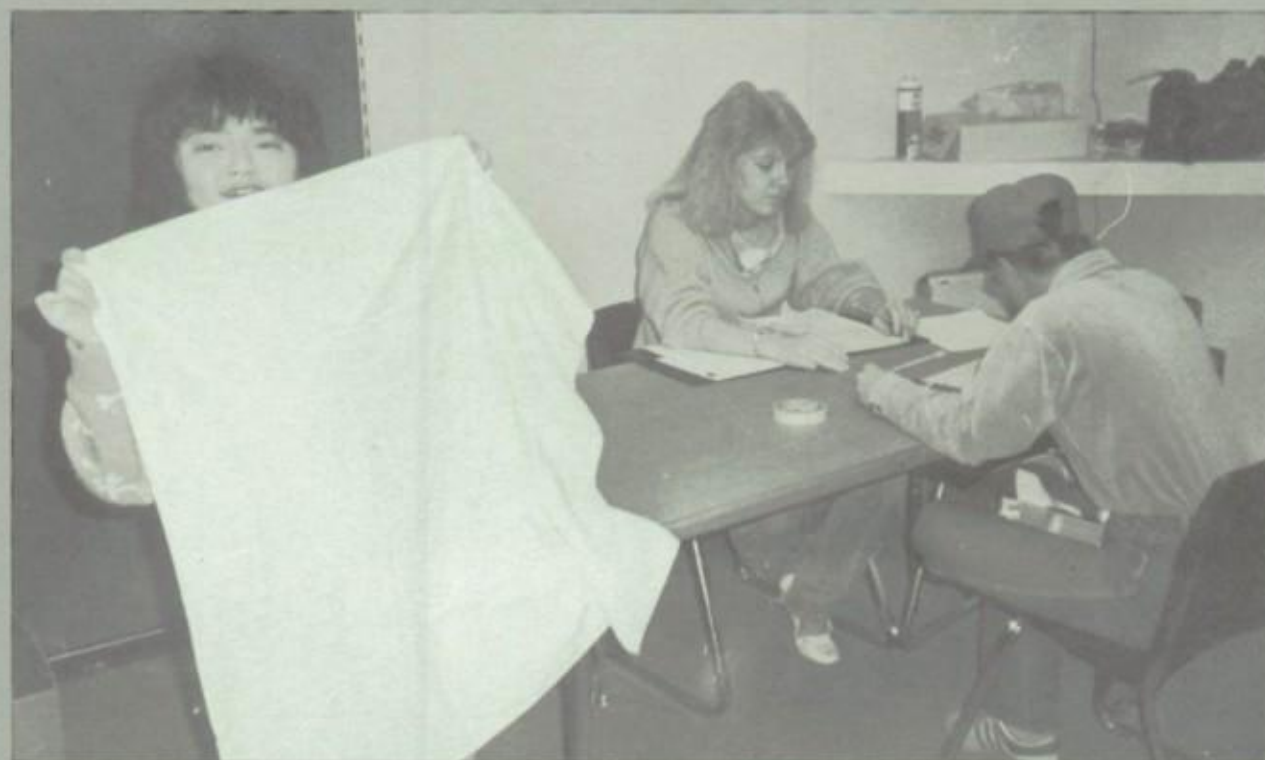

One of the great teachers was Hazel Barker. She's the coordinator for the Weber School District for the Physically Handicapped Centers. She has been doing this for approximately sixteen years. Mrs. Barker thoroughly enjoyed her work with her students and replied that they enjoyed going to school at Roy High as much as she liked teaching at Roy.

Kelly Memmott and her Para-Professional full-time aid, Sue Milligan taught Independent Living to the Special Ed students. This was a new program used to help build up these students' abilities.

Brad Ferguson taught the Basic skill class along with his aid, Melinda Stuart. This class had twenty-two student tutors helping each day. The tutors helped these students to go out and actually do things, such things were: going grocery shopping, going to the laundromat and do laundry.

These classes helped these students to acquire a productive vocational skill and taught them other skills which enabled them to become more independent.

Teaming Up For Independent Living

The Classes We Hate and Love

This year the English department has expanded and changed, with two new teachers, Lisa Bouwhuis with three sophomore classes, and Joleigh Kerr with one English twelve class. English is the biggest and most important academic department, with twelve teachers constantly keeping on their toes teaching every student in the school about the finer points of the subject. Since each Royal had to take English it was important to Miss Olson, the head of the department, that each teacher kept a close relationship with the student. Some changes that were made, Miss Lewis taught, A.P. Prep English for juniors and Mrs. Manning, along with a new baby girl, taught ACT Prep English for juniors. The highlight of this organization was the Writing Lab. The dedication of this group was shown by the rise of the ACT scores.

The chairperson for this year's Social Studies department was Miss Larken. This made her seventh year as chairman and she enjoyed it. Some of the main things that Miss Larken had to do included: Ordering books, attending many district meetings, and she made a lot of big decisions which affected the whole department. One of the highlights for the social studies department came from choosing this year's Sterling Scholar. Some new events that have taken place this year centered around A.P. Political Science and the fact that Mr. Hadley's Government law classes have been able to participate in the Pilot Training program, which has only been available this year. Mr. Hadley is one of the staff with the six other teachers who supported Miss Larken.

For eight years Mr. Jones has been teaching Metals at Roy High. In his class students learn about machine shop skills, welding and about sheet metal. Not many girls are in the class but the boys, or men, participate in many events. There is the Young Craftsmen Fair at BYU and VICA. Some have received scholarships to the machine shops at Weber State. Mr. Jones says, "It has been an enjoyable year and a great learning experience."

Students in Mr. Fawson's class learn about cars and working in the automotive field. In Autos, they get a better understanding of cars and could also get a good paying job. The students participate in competitions, such as the VICA competition held at Weber State. There are four classes of Auto Mechanics, Basic Auto I, Basic Auto II, Voc. Auto I, and Voc. Auto II. This year 35 students are in VICA Auto, a good improvement from last year.

Roy High had some good teachers that worked hard to help the students in their P.E. classes to achieve better conditions. These teachers are: Mr. Sheffer, Ms. Johnson, Ms. Nancollas, Mr. Smith, Ms. Jensen and Mr. Thompson. This year students have more time in class to do different sports, such as Soccer, Archery, Basketball, and Weight Lifting. Girls do other sports as well. They play Volleyball, do Aerobics and Dance, just to name a few. The teachers want to improve the condition of the students and they want to provide things that they enjoy.

The Electives

Learning To Work Nine To Five

Associated with the Home Economics (Home Ec.) department, the F.H.A. club is available for any girls interested in home making arts. The club participates in many activities devoted to service projects, and competitions that were a lot of fun. Some of the things the department was involved in included: Convention, The Wool Contest, and a Sterling Scholar from our school will participate in the State Convention. There are several scholarships available through the Home Ec. Program given away by the local colleges. They have many fund raisers, which help them to donate to service projects.

At Convention the students compete with other students from around the state in any of the areas of: Clothing, Foods, Interior Design, and Child Development. The classes are not only for girls, in fact there are a lot of boys that took the class this year. Some of the highlights were their Table Setting Contest, Wool Contest, the Child Development Lab, and the Pre-School labs, where the students had the chance to work with actual kids and teach them songs, tell stories and mainly help with their education. One of the Child Development classes allowed the students to go to the schools and helps the kindergarten, and Co-op programming system.

There were several business classes available to the students this year. Marketing, accounting, business law, shorthand, office procedures, typing, and computers are just a few. These classes provided the opportunity for students to obtain enough skills to be able to get a good job and to function well. Students can become successful because of the skills they learn in the class with out having to go to school for a lot of years. Some new changes that took place this year were computer accounting and marketing. They were able to run applied economics the second half of the year. The three classes in marketing were able to run their own business like in the real business community. After liquidation, the students got paid for their efforts and their business. Instructed by professional businessmen, who taught the students once a week, they learned how to manage sales, books, all product distribution, advertisements, and how to sell stock. There are two clubs in the business department: FBLA, and DECA. The clubs compete in all different areas of employment. The competitions were held in New Orleans, and Indiana during the last part of April, and the first part of May. One of their main goals was to have a national winner from Roy High, and to send ten students to the finals.

Chemistry, Biology, Zoology, Physics, Geology, and Physiology were some of the courses in the Science Department. All the future doctors and inventors were in these classes to learn about compounds and life itself. There was a new course added to the Science Department this year, it was Wildlife Management. The students learned about different species of animals and went on field trips like to Utah State University. The teacher of this class was Mr. Prussing. All the classes in the Science Department helped the students further their knowledge about life and what it's made of.

The Music Department was bigger and better than ever. They had groups like Chamber Choir, Royal Sounds, Royal Choir, Royal Band, Bold Band, and Pep Band. They had concerts and competitions which resulted in bringing home places in the competitions. The Department had a special student who received the chance to play with the McDonalds Band in the Macies Thanksgiving Parade. His name was Jason Willard. The Music Department gave the students chances for scholarships and showed them the way to higher, prestigious schools. So the future better watch out because here comes the future Madonnas and Liberaces.

This year the F.H.A. organization has grown and changed in many ways. To begin with they had a goal reaching club going. Throughout the year they were involved with the March of Dimes. They've had fund raisers such as, selling pizza at football games and selling chocolates for Christmas. They also sponsored the table setting contest and did some service projects during the year. All these activities built up to the state convention, where they competed for two days on job interviews, demonstrations of food and clothing and public speaking. The main goal of the year was to become a four star chapter.

The Model United Nations club represented Red China this year. They had to come up with resolutions and policy statements representing the ways the Red Chinese people in Peking would deal with issues on an International level. The highlight: This was the first year they have had a country of such a size, especially one that is on the superior council. This country was the major top decision body in the United States, and so they had power this year. On April twenty-fourth, and the twenty-fifth, the students went down to the University of Utah and represented their country. At the University they put up a pole and made resolutions to it and tried to convince the other people to vote with them. There are thirty people in M.U.N. All of the different schools represent different countries. The two officers for M.U.N. were Jan Molding, and Lane Larson. This was an extra-curricular class and the students were able to learn valuable tactics.

This year's Future Business Leaders of America was quite extraordinary. F.B.L.A. is a club made up of any student that has a business class. The purpose of the club was: 1. To develop confident aggressive business leaders. 2. Strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and their work. 3. Create more interest and understanding of American business enterprise. And many more. The competitions held on March the third, the regional competition held at Stevens Henegar College. The third and fourth of April held a special day at the Salt Lake Hilton. The leaders as of now have not been elected.

This year's F.F.A. advisors were Mr. Steinquist, and assistant advisor Mr. Harris. The leaders were as follows:

Tina Pennman, President; Joey Adair, Vice President; Patti Garcia, Secretary; Darlene Fowlers, Treasurer; Shelly Freeland, Historian; and Stacey Smith, reporter. The class is held second, third, and fourth periods. In all it included about sixty members. Some competitions they were involved in were, Snow College in October, the State contest in March held at Cedar City, and the judging of Plain City Dairy Days and the judging at Utah State University. This was a fun and educational group and they hope to gain more students who are interested in competition and giving 100% for years to come.

V.I.C.A., an organization of vocational industrial clubs of America was a club of shop classes formed together to discuss ideas and try to solve the idea. Their main highlight for the year was that they tried to win first place in the state mechanical drawing and in the Architectural concepts. They had a competition at Weber State then another one at the University of Utah.

The advisors were: Rich Evans, Bob Jones, Dayne Williams, and Paul Fawson. The President of the V.I.C.A. club was Mark Greenameyer.

An organization made up of athletes who lettered in a school sport, organized the Lettermens Club. The purpose of this group is to instill pride, honor, and self-esteem to various athletic teams. The athletes responsibilities to the school and the community are to improve the climate. This group of guys have a code of honor that they follow. They act as a roll model for the younger youths of the community.

All athletes who lettered in any of the school's sports automatically became a member of the Lettermans Club. They also had the opportunity to purchase a Lettermans jacket. Girls who lettered also had the opportunity to purchase a jacket or a sweater.

The advisors who helped in this organization were: Coach Ted Smith, Coach Fred Thompson, and Patti Nancollas. The officers at this time had not been chosen.

Royalguardsmen and Deca up in Arms

Outstanding Senior Gentlemen were chosen out of all the senior men to form a group called the Royalguardsmen to maintain good behavior at Roy High. Their purpose were to promote the Royal Code Body. These men served the Student Body in helping as ushers during assemblies and at Stomps. You would also see some of the men at lunch time in the lunch room watching out in case a student decided to throw a bean or a carrot. The Advisors in the group were Steve Boyson and Fred Thompson.

Deca, a club made up of excellent and outstanding students which competed in the marketing, fashion merchandising, sales projects, and advertising in the State Competition. They tried to go all the way in the Nationals in New Orleans.

Heading the Deca club: President — Blake Harrop, Vice President — Ben German, Business Secretary Manager — Steve Stromberg, Secretary — Shelly Swanner, Financialist — Val Anderson, and Junior Representative — Mike Tafoya. Dave Green acted as advisor.

Our Deca club contributed to the school and the Student Body, by selling Beach T-Shirts and also ran a Computer Dating Program. The club also sold advertising for the yearbook. This gave them a chance to make money for themselves.

Thirty of the Science Club members participated in the Weber State Regional Science Fair and from there two students were sent to Puerto Rico. Other students, such as the Wildlife Management and Geology classes, kept busy while going on various field trips and activities.

Every year for the last thirteen years, at least two students from Roy High have received a scholarship in a science field. This year we managed to uphold the tradition.

The president of the Science Club Lars Ashby and Yong Lee acted as vice president. Mr. Moulding goal for his students was not to know something but to learn how to learn.

The PTSA is a program consisting of parents, teachers, students, and the administration. The officers of the PTSA are as follows: Presidents, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Beroy, 1st Vice President, Karen Rich, 2nd Vice President, Dr. William Reese, and Secretary Hazien Page. The school representative is Mr. Van Hadley.

When asked what was new this year, Mr. Berg said that the main emphasis was to look into the drug problems surrounding the community. He also stressed that the PTSA wants to look into the safety involved in student-related motorcycle and automobile accidents.

The PTSA's main purpose is to be a forum of information for the school and community. They would like to see more people enroll and get involved in the PTSA as it will benefit everyone in the community.

Arsenic and Old Lace

It all started on an afternoon in September at the Brewster home in Brooklyn. All the actors and actresses took their parts. They all had their own style. Dr. Einstein's (Val Anderson) hair was magnificent. Abby Brewster (Shalene Routh Weatherman) glided across the stage with such grace. Teddy Brewster (Phil Funk) blew his horn and ran up the stairs just like Theodore Roosevelt. The play made the audience intense one minute and laugh the next.

Mortimer Brewster (Riko Reese) arrived home to visit his aunts and family. He was to be engaged to Elaine Harper (Rayla Rogers). He found out that his aunts had been killing lonely men. His ruthless brother, Jonathan Brewster (Lars Ashby), decided to move back home with his friend Dr. Einstein. Jonathan Brewster tries to kill Mortimer but doesn't succeed. All in the end, the whole family gets put in a sanitarium except for Mortimer who finds out he is not a Brewster but was adopted. He marries Elaine and they live happily ever after, as far as we know.

R.H.S. School Song

We'll sing our song to thee tonight,
We'll raise our sound of praise.
We'll take our pledge of brotherhood,
Enduring through our days.

Under bright blue skies she's outstanding,
Proudly wears the colors of her crest.
Hail to Roy, our Alma Mater,
Rising alone above the rest.

When the years have passed by slowly,
Thoughts of glory shall remain.
As the cheers of victory dwindle,
We will sing this last refrain.

Under bright blue skies she's standing,
Proudly wears the colors of her crest.
Hail to Roy, our Alma Mater,
Rising alone above the rest.

*Hi Rusten!
How is life treating you? I hope we you surely do look well.
I hope I see much of you in the future.
Love ya
Rust*

R.H.S. Fight Song

Go Royals, go Through the toughest battles will our colors glow
Go Royals, go
Honor and courage we will always show
Go Royals, go
Victory is our goal
Never shrink from any foe
Show them what the Royals know
Go Royals. Go Royals. Go!

Fight. Royals, fight!
Fight for all that's noble and for all that's right
Fight. Royals, fight!
Keep our name and emblem that is shining bright

Fight. Royals, fight!
Fight with all your might.
Never shrink from any foe.
Show them what the Royals know.
Fight. Royals. Fight Royals. Fight . . .
Fight!

*X Rusten George Fred Hubert, I was trying to copy Amy but it isn't quite the same.
Ssh. me & Shane are gonna tell a secret. You & Amy are so cool, we should do something with them this summer.
Rusten whoops I can't hardly think of much to write because ~~out~~ just a about 2 weeks ago. I thought you hated me. O so now me & Shane have to pay him. Really cool. See if we let you be in the show he getting land part of our movie or even one! We be getting wasted part of
we have to pay them
I hope you remember*

WHAT I'M THINKING

COLOPHON

This book was published in Provo, Utah, by Community Press for the Roy High School. The Cover and Charicatures were designed by Wynn Farr. Layouts were designed by the Editor-in-Chief. Mike Hirschi advised over the book in process.

THIS IS
B.S.

In case you decide to let your Mom read this garbage. Well I took up 3 pages huh so you can't say I didn't write enough stuff. No, but we Go! every time i write in Bybee!

your yearbook (well, at least last year)
It's hard to imagine what will happen in the year ahead. I don't think I would have ever thought what happened this year would have happened. In some ways a lot happened this year. Like the D-Dudes.
But in a lot of ~~other~~ ways nothing much happened. But through it all you were there. you were there to support me and make things fun.

I am so glad we are still best friends.
No one else could be to me what you are. I appreciate everything you do for me.

I wish I knew what lies ahead for both of us. I wish I could say we could both get what we want but I don't know. All I know is I need you beside me.

Let's make our last year of high school great! I hope things go good for ya, but you deserve it.

Let's have a great summer! ~~TA~~
Love ya lots! ~~TA~~
